Dr. Lorenz Gives Practical Demonstration at Hospital-

SOME SAD INCIDENTS

The Different Sections Continued to Transact a Great Deal of Business and Revision of Code Is Looked After.

New Orleans, May 7.—Five hundred doctors gathered at the Charity hospital to witness another demonstration by Dr. Adolf Lorenz of his method of bloodless surgery. There was an unusual attendance of crippled children and parents, the latter anxious to have their little ones selected as subjects for the demonstration. Some of the scenes were affecting.

The house of delegates took up the matter of the proposed revision of the code of ethics.

The American Medical Temperance association met and listened to a paper by President W. S. Hall of Chicago on "Nature's Immunization of Race Against Liquors."

Dr. T. B. Rodman of Philadelphia, for the portrait committee of the American Medical association, presented for the hall of fame a portrait of Dr. Hunter McGuire of Virginia, a distinguished Confederate surgeon and ex-president of the association.

Dr. W. H. Saunders of Alabama, Dr. R. D. Murray of the marine hospital service and Dr. J. M. Lindsay of Cuba participated in an interesting discussion before the section on hygiene on the question of public health powers and their exercise by national, state, county and municipal authorities.

The section also listened to an interesting paper on leprosy by Dr. Isidore Dyer of Louisiana, and Dr. Dyer invited a party of doctors to visit the Louisiana lepers' home.

This section nominated for officers Dr. G. T. Swarts, Rhode Island, president, and Dr. John Fulton of Maryland for secretary.

Dr. Joseph McFarland of Philadelphia, was elected president of the section of pathology and physiology, and Dr. Henry A. Christian of Boston secretary.

Dr. Edwin Walker, presided at the meeting of the executive committee of the Mississippi Valley Medical association.

It was decided to meet in Memphis Oct. 7, 8 and 9.

ADDRESSES MADE.

The National Conference of Charities and Correction Down to Business.

Atlanta, Ga., May 7.—The second day's session of the National Conference of Charities and Corrections opened with an invocation by Bishop Benjamin J. E. Elley of Savannah. The general subject of the day was "County and Municipal Institutions, Out-door Relief and Vagrancy," and the committee on this branch of work, through its chairman, C. L. Stonaker of Denver, Col., presented its report.

William H. Allen, general agent of the New York Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, delivered an address treating on vagrancy, taking as his subject: "Social Parasite or Social Product."

Other addresses upon the general subject of vagrancy were given by Miss Alice C. Willard of Chicago, James F. Jackson of Minneapolis, James Forbes of New York, and former Mayor Livingston Mims of Atlanta.

During the afternoon a sectional meeting was held devoted to a discussion of various phases of general and correctional problems.

WELL AND FAIRLY.

Perceval Landon Stands Up for American Soldiers in the Philippines.

New York, May 7.—Perceval Landon, in the second of his series of letters from Manila on "The American Failure in the Philippines," printed in the Daily Mail, argues according to a London dispatch to the World that the difficulties of the situation were considerably increased by the capture of Aguinaldo.

"Little importance need be attached," he asserts, "to the recent exposure by General Miles that a certain number of Americans disgraced themselves by acts of abominable cruelty. It is no more of a slur upon the American army than the records of Newgate Calendar are upon the inhabitants of London. Throughout the war the individual American soldiers have played the game well and fairly, and it is no discredit to them that it is not yet carried to a successful close." In enumeration of the cause of the unsatisfactory condition, Mr. Landon mentions introducing the gold standard, which disorganized business and prohibiting Chinese labor.

Too No Action.

Memphis, May 7.—Bishop Thomas F. Gallor of the Episcopal diocese of Tennessee in his annual report before the seventy-first convention of the diocese in session here strongly favored the proposition to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal church to the "Catholic Church of the United States of America." The convention did not take action upon the recommendation.

RACES ARE SEPARATED

ACTION REPUDIATED

Speaker Would Rather Trust This Country in the Hands of a Negro With a Hoe and Plow Than With a White Man.

Montgomery, Ala., May 7.—For the first time in the history of the Republican party in this state, at the conference of Republicans held in the hall of the house of representatives Wednesday, the whites took seats on one side of the hall and the negroes on the other.

The Republican conference, called by Referees W. F. Aldrich, Charles H. Scott and J. O. Thompson, was called together a little after noon by W. F. Aldrich, who called Oscar R. Hundley of Madison to preside.

In calling the conference to order Mr. Aldrich explained the object of the meeting. The referees had been appointed without solicitation, and they were appointed to correct the mistakes and right the wrongs of the Birmingham convention.

The speaker paid a tribute to President Roosevelt, and wanted only one delegation to be sent to the next national convention, and that to be pledged to Roosevelt. His reference to the president received liberal applause. Mr. Hundley, in resuming the chair, said that he desired to refute certain charges. He assailed the Birmingham convention for denying the right of the negro to participate in the convention. He said he had rather trust this country in the hands of the negro with a hoe and plow than the white man with the torch and bomb.

The committee on rules reported, and though its report met with some opposition, it was adopted.

Several resolutions were offered and referred.

J. O. Thompson moved that a committee of three be appointed to wait on Captain J. W. Dimmick, national committeeman, and invite him to a seat in the convention. There was some opposition to this motion, but it was finally adopted, when a recess was taken.

When the conference reassembled Captain Dimmick appeared on the floor and made a few remarks and took a seat.

During a session of six hours the conference adopted a plan advanced by the referees which, in effect, is a repudiation of the action of the Birmingham convention in barring qualified negro voters from participation. The negroes urged that recognition of the present state executive committee be withheld, but this proposition was voted down.

A meeting of the state executive committee, called by Chairman W. I. Willman, chief of the Lily Whites, will convene in Birmingham May 12, and at this meeting the new amalgamation of negroes and administration Republicans will attempt to capture the party machinery, it is alleged.

A majority of the state committee attended the conference.

The emperor lunched with the queen mother at the Buoncompagni palace, and left Rome later Wednesday afternoon. There was a brilliant scene at the railroad station when he left. He was loudly cheered by the assembled crowds.

The streets from the Quirinal to the railroad station were lined with many thousands of people, cheering, waving handkerchiefs and shouting "Long live William!"

Card of Thanks.

In behalf of myself and family I desire to express my heartfelt thanks to the many friends for their kindness during the illness of Capt. Polk, and kind attention at the time of his death. I feel grateful to one and all. Mrs. George Polk.

MISTAKE.
By Failing to Sound the Fire Alarm a Lady Loses Her Life.
Chicago, May 7.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from New York says: Rather than make an alarm which she knew might awaken a dozen sleeping families to a panic, Mrs. James K. Polk silently and desperately fought a fire in her apartments. She paid for this with her life last night, for so badly burned was she that she died, despite every effort of the surgeons. Wealthy, and herself a daughter of one of Sweden's famous artists, Mrs. Polk was married twenty-one years ago to Mr. Polk, whose great uncle was president of the United States.

MOROS DEFEATED.

One Hundred and Fifteen Killed, Thirteen Wounded and Sixty Captured.
Manila, May 7.—Captain Pershing's column defeated the sultan of Ampuraganos' strong force of Moros in Taracaco, on the east shore of Lake Lanao, island of Mindanao. The Americans captured ten forts. One hundred and fifteen Moros were killed, thirteen wounded and sixty made prisoners. The Moros captured included the sultan. Two Americans were killed and seven wounded.

Peace Movement.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—A dispatch from Jackson, Ky., says the people not involved in the feud contemplate calling on Governor Beckham to bring peace to Breathitt county. It is expected that the contingent with which Marcum was allied, which includes the influential postmaster, Hurst, Marcum's father-in-law, are uniting against the Cockrell family with a view precipitating a fight. Conservative citizens who are acquainted with either family do not express surprise at the report.

Demonstration Made.

Paris, May 7.—A dispatch from Bastia, Corsica, says the Capuchins, who had been barricaded in their monastery there for many days, were expelled by the police. The friars, who had been without food for two days owing to the siege, refused to take down their barricades, and the doors were broken in. About 2000 persons made a demonstration against the authorities, but they were dispersed.

Slater Superintendent.

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—W. T. Slater, manager of the Louisville office of the Postal Telegraph and Cable company, has been appointed superintendent of the Fifth district of the Postal's southern division. The appointment is to take effect June 1, when the new district will be created, with Louisville as headquarters. The district covers all save one line in Kentucky and part of Tennessee.

Given a Gold Medal.

London, May 7.—The annual meeting of the Iron and Steel Institute met here with a large attendance. Before being formally installed in the chair the new president, Andrew Carnegie, who remarked that he was the first president of the institute who was not a British subject, presented Sir James Kitner, former president of the institute, with the Bessemer gold medal for 1903. Mr. Carnegie subsequently delivered his inaugural address, which was listened to with much interest.

Schley's Daughter on Board.

Chicago, May 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Norfolk, Va., says: It has just become known that among the passengers on the steamship Haulton at the time of the disaster Tuesday was Miss Schley, daughter of Rear Admiral Winfield Scott Schley. She, with other women passengers of the Haulton, raised $95 in cash, which was distributed among the Saginaw's survivors.

Bold Holdup.

Chicago, May 7.—Three men, armed with revolvers held up the saloon of William Manion Wednesday night while half a dozen patrons were drinking at the bar. They secured $500 in negotiable checks, a watch and chain and $100 from the proprietor. Hidden behind the bar was a cigar case containing $1000, which they overlooked.

WASN'T INGERSOLL RIGHT.

A young man from a small country town, whose father was a friend of the late Robert G. Ingersoll, wanted to secure a position in Washington as a government clerk. Accordingly with a letter of introduction from his father he went to the national capitol to see Col. Ingersoll and get his endorsement. Ingersoll, after listening to the young man's story, and learning that he had a young wife and one child, said:

"Young man, I would rather have 40 acres of land with a log cabin on it and the woman I love in the cabin—with a little, grassy, winding path leading down to a spring where the water gurgles from the lips of the earth, whistling day and night to the white pebbles a perpetual song—with hollyhocks growing at the corner of the house, and morning glories blooming over the low latched door—with lattice work over the windows so that the sunlight would fall checkered on the dimpled babe in the cradle, and bird-like songs with wings hovering in the summer air—than to be the clerk of any government on earth."

ON TO BOULDER!

What the People Think of the Eagle's Enterprise.

Quite a number of our patrons have already expressed their appreciation of the enterprise of the Eagle in offering to send two correspondents to cool Colorado for a summer outing. The Eagle will not only give to two persons a delightful summer trip, but all the readers of the paper will profit by the regular weekly letters from two of our town or county people taking in the sights and delights of a summer in the Rockies.

These two correspondents will have opportunities of enjoyment and of sight-seeing far superior to those enjoyed by persons taking a Colorado trip without some arrangement of this kind. According to our understanding with the Fort Worth & Denver railway these two correspondents of the Eagle will have special courtesies shown them by the railway people, and will be given special opportunities to see and enjoy. Bryan and Brazos county have writers of talent, who need some such inspiration as this to call forth their grandest efforts. Caesar burned Rome that the sight of a great city in flames might inspire him to lofty lyric composition. Could that unspeakable tyrant have seen one of those gorgeous, glorious sunsets in the Rockies he would have needed no grander inspiration to lofty thought.

Think of the bewildering beauty, the overpowering grandeur, the awful sublimity of the scenes amid the imposing piles of those mighty sierras! That continent of ever-changing splendors, piled up by the hand of Omnipotence to give mankind conceptions of the Infinite! No man or woman, actuated by noble purpose, should spend a life without for once having opened his eyes upon scenes such as these.

The Eagle's plan of awarding these tourist tickets, providing for this magnificent trip through the world's wonderland, was explained yesterday. It is as follows:

We will pay the railroad fare of the correspondents, giving them a trip from Bryan to Boulder, Colo., and return (via Pueblo, Colorado Springs, Manitou, Palmer Lake and Denver), with stop-over privileges in each direction, and good until Oct. 31st, 1903, for return passage; also one side trip from Denver or Colorado Springs to Cripple Creek and return.

Beginning in a few days now, we will print coupons in the papers, both daily and weekly, and by clipping these coupons and voting them our readers may say who shall be the recipients of these favors.

This contest will close July 23, and the trip to Colorado will be made immediately thereafter.

L. A. Guerlinger, engineer in charge of construction work on the Madisonville branch of the I. & G. N., passed through the city yesterday and reported the death of Contractor Geo. Lee at Bedias Wednesday. Mr. Lee came from Caldwell. Mr. Guerlinger says track laying has been completed five miles beyond Anderson and he expects to reach Madisonville with the line by July 1.

Massacre Denied.

Vienna, May 7.—The officials of the foreign office say there is absolutely no foundation for the report published by a news agency in the United States that 9000 Christian inhabitants of Novi-Bazar Bosnia, have been massacred by Mussulmen. Austria maintains three garrisons in the district of Novi-Bazar and everything is quiet there.

Rome, May 8.—Manager Vecchio, secretary of the propaganda received by the pope this morning submitted the report of the propaganda on the vacancy in the bishopric at Buffalo, N. Y. The pontiff decided on the appointment of Rev. Charles H. Colon, rector of St. Stephen's church, New York.

Twenty Persons Injured.

Chicago, May 7.—Twenty persons were injured and a few seriously in a collision between two south-bound Halstead street electric cars at Forty-third street. One woman was taken from the wreck and carried into an adjoining store. It is believed her injuries are fatal.

Don't Know Too Much.

There is nothing else a man so much needs as the ability to "make up his mind." Men who have crowded their minds have a great difficulty in "making them up," and indecision is the fatal consequence. He who knows a little and knows how to apply it is more fortunate than those with a superior culture which paralyzes their action.—Boston Globe.

The Observant Youth.

The pompous new resident had been having a set-to with the smart boy of the neighborhood. This was the youngster's parting shot:

STEALING A DOG.

Sir Edwin Landseer's Experience With a London Fancier.

Sir Edwin Landseer, the animal painter, one time was about to put the finishing touches to the portrait of a dog belonging to a nobleman and was expecting a visit from his model when the owner arrived in a state of great perturbation without the dog. The animal had been stolen. After talking over the loss with Sir Edwin the owner decided to leave the matter in the painter's hands, together with a ten pound note as a reward for the recovery of the dog.

Sir Edwin's acquaintance with the dog fanciers was large, and he summoned to his aid one Jem Smith, who he thought might put him on the right track. He showed the man the picture and the bank note and promised that if the dog were restored no questions should be asked. Six weeks later Smith arrived at the studio leading the missing dog by a piece of string. "Here is your £10," said the artist, "and I suppose I must ask no questions. But now that the affair is done with you may just as well tell me about it."

After a moment of hesitation the man confessed that he himself was the thief. "You, you thundering rascal!" exclaimed Sir Edwin. "Then why on earth have you kept us in suspense all this time?" "Well, you see, gov'nor," was the answer, "I stole the dog, but the gentleman I sold him to kept 'im so jolly close that I hadn't a chance of nicking him again till yesterday, and that's the truth, s'elp me."

The Power of Thought.

Beware of what you think, for what you think, quite as much as what you do, molds your character. Wrong acts persisted in will wreck any life, but wrong thoughts have just as sure an effect. It not infrequently happens that people who live fairly good lives so far as their actions go do not feel it necessary to set so close a guard on their thoughts. These are hidden, and of what harm is it to occasionally cherish a vulgar thought if one does not allow it to escape in action? Of what harm to hate if one does not show it? To imagine oneself committing wrong acts if one does not actually commit them? But the laws of life say that every thought affects the whole being. As a man's heart is, so will he be. Evil thoughts gradually undermine the character, and some day these thoughts will burst into action which is irremediable.—Woman's Home Companion.

Signs of Death.

Of course the various physical phenomena which usually accompany the act of dying vary considerably in the early stages with the causes which are producing death.

To one schooled in death scenes the physiognomy which the grim destroyer presents is one not easily mistaken. Among the many signs of death that are unmistakable are the failing pulse, the coldness of the extremities, the change in the countenance as the venous blood courses the arteries, the skin grows clammy as the various vessels refuse to longer perform their functions, the eyes glaze, the jaw drops, fluid accumulates in the windpipe, causing the "death rattle," and finally the breathing ceases altogether.

Shaping the Verdict.

In a book on life in the Sierra Nevada mountains Clarence King tells of a cowboy trial of a Mexican on a charge of horse stealing. A jury was gathered in the street, showed into a room, and some time later a dozen fellows burst in demanding the verdict. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. With volleyed oaths and ominous laying of hands on pistol hilts the boys slammed the door with, "You'll have to do better than that!" In half an hour the advocate gently opened the door again. "Your opinion, gentlemen?" "Guilty!" "Correct! You can come out. We hanged him an hour ago."

Buddhist Prayer Wheels.

In the sacred city of Ourga, the headquarters of Mongolian Buddhism, are numerous "prayer wheels," inscribed with prayers and dedications to Buddha, and the more they are turned the more religious they make you. Many of the more devout persons turn smaller wheels held in the left hand while manipulating the large one with the right hand. Curious bits of rags flying above the palisades of the inclosures of the town are "prayer flags." No Mongolian house is without them—the more the better—for each one is supposed to convey a prayer to Buddha.

AT AUSTIN.

Several Matters of Interest Coming to Pass at the Capital.

Austin, May 7.—"It is a case which requires careful consideration. We want to do what we think is best for Texas and also comply with the law." These were the words of Chairman Storey used when asked if the commission had reached a decision in the San Antonio and Aransas Pass case. Commissioner Mayfield and Auditor Askew left Wednesday night for Fort Worth and Dallas on a secret mission, the nature of which is not disclosed here.

An agreement was filed by the state department wherein the Kirby Lumber company purchases 180 logging cars from the American Car and Foundry company, to be delivered April 1, 1904. Consideration $54,405. Cars are to be used for lumber in east Texas.

Twenty-Fifth Annual Convention Meets at Fort Worth.

Fort Worth, May 7.—President Helen M. Stoddard called the twenty-first annual convention of the Texas Woman's Christian Temperance union to order. The recommendations, which are railroad fare for one delegate from each local union to the state convention be paid out of the state treasury; that the state laws upon liquor traffic, gambling and vice be compiled and printed for general distribution; that every woman in the union acquaint herself with the movements of all candidates and use her influence to have only those men who are true to the home nominated; that a committee go before the state text book committee and ask for a series of physiologies for the public schools; that all departments, particularly those touching the youth of the state, should receive intelligent attention. The treasurer, Mrs. Curtis of Beaumont, read a voluminous report, showing the condition of the unions of the state. There are 129 unions, with 2341 members, an increase of 100 over last year. Total receipts $1996, paid out $1010, balance on hand $986.

INSURANCE SWINDLE.

One of Gigantic Character Is Alleged to Have Been Discovered.

New York, May 7.—Mrs. Kate Condon, a dressmaker, has been arrested and locked up here on a charge of refusing to obey a subpoena on a bench warrant. Much secrecy was observed by the police and the woman was questioned in private. It has leaked out, however, that the arrest is in connection with an alleged gigantic insurance swindle.

At the house where Mrs. Condon was employed ignorance was professed as to the cause of the woman's arrest.

An official who is in a position to know said the woman was only one of two score of persons for whom the police and the district attorneys have been looking for since last December, when a grand jury handed down that many indictments in connection with an insurance case or a series of insurance cases of great magnitude. Several million dollars, he understood, was the amount of money involved. All persons concerned, he said, lived in New York and in some manner had received a tip of the law's action and fled from the city. Several of them, it was afterwards learned, went to New England; others went west, and some were known to have been in Atlanta, Ga. The speaker said that information had been received of another arrest in Boston, but who this was he could not say.

District Attorney Jerome, when questioned, simply said: "I do not know anything about the case."

REBELS WON.

They Defeated the Imperial Forces After Fighting Seven Hours.

Molilla, Morocco, May 8.—Rebels defeated the imperial forces after seven hours' fighting near Fez and captured positions held by the sultan's troops, all tents and much loot. Both sides lost heavily. Rebels sent messengers to the pretender asking for reinforcements, as they were unable to withstand further attack. Reinforcements, however, were not sent.

Caught the Child.

New York, May 7.—A three-year-old child fell from its mother's arms through a window of an elevated train in a lofty structure on Second avenue. The mother's screams were heard by two men who were crossing the street below and who glanced up in time to see the child falling and catch it in their arms. The child was restored to its frantic mother with no more serious results of its thrilling experience than a slight bruise caused by grazing the edge of the elevated structure.

Trouble Feared.

Lawton, Okla., May 7.—Much trouble is expected to come from the excitement now on in the Wichita mountains because of the bitter feeling existing among certain cliques up there, and it is feared serious results will follow. One gang of miners was forced off their claims by men armed with guns.

Had Depot to Himself.

Texarkana, Tex., May 7.—A negro with a well-developed case of smallpox was discovered on Cotton Belt train. The patient left the train here and went into the waiting room, where he was forced to remain by the local police. He will be sent to railroad hospital at Tyler.

Two large boarding houses at Dallas burned and a dozen residences scorched. Three firemen were overcome by heat.
